First-time inclusion in the FTSE4Good Index Series

～ESG initiatives receive international recognition～

AEON Financial Service Co., Ltd. (President and CEO: Tomoharu Fukayama; hereinafter, "the Company") hereby announces that it has been selected for the first time as a constituent of both the FTSE4Good Developed Index and the FTSE4Good Japan Index, which are part of the FTSE4Good Index Series, a globally recognized investment index series focused on environmental, social and governance (ESG) performance.

The FTSE4Good Index Series is a series of equity indices developed by FTSE Russell. It assesses companies' ESG initiatives against international standards and comprises companies that demonstrate leading ESG practices.

In addition, the Company has been newly selected as a constituent of the FTSE JPX Blossom Japan Index, which is adopted by Japan's Government Pension Investment Fund (GPIF) as an ESG investment benchmark, and has also been included in the FTSE JPX Blossom Japan Sector Relative Index for the fourth consecutive year.

The Company seeks to help build a future in which economic development and social sustainability go hand in hand by addressing a wide range of social issues through the provision of financial services. We will continue to co-create value with our stakeholders, contribute to a better society, and enhance non-financial value through these initiatives. By earning the trust of society and the capital markets, we aim to achieve sustainable growth in corporate value.
