The corporate governance of AEON Financial Service is described below.

I. Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Attributes, and Other Key Information

1. Basic Views

The Group's approach to corporate governance is as follows.

- (1) We will instill the basic philosophy of AEON Co., Ltd. (hereinafter “AEON”), our parent company, and the AEON Group Future Vision into our company and our group.

[AEON Foundational Ideals]

Pursuing peace, respecting humans, and contributing to local communities, always with customers as our starting point.

AEON firmly believes that retailing is an industry to promote peace, humanity, and local communities. To remain a thriving corporate group that fulfills this mission, we are committed to continuous innovation, with customers as our starting point.

- (2) In order to realize and put Our Purpose into practice, we will respect the Independency and autonomy of our officers, employees, and Group companies, and thoroughly implement our basic management policy.

[Our Purpose]

Our purpose is to bring ‘finance’ closer to everyone. By committing to each and every person, we brighten up everyday lives with peace of mind and smiles.

[Basic management policies]

Our basic policies are to put customers first, provide financial services that are closely attuned to customers’ lives, earn the trust of society and meet its expectations, and maintain a corporate culture that encourages our people to excel.

- (3) To return profits to shareholders, to promote the generation of mutual benefits with other stakeholders, and to promote social contribution, all officers and employees of the AFS Group shall strive to work in unison in accordance with the following:

- (a) When making a decision, endeavor to make an optimal decision by: following proper procedures and complying with laws and regulations and other social norms; collecting sufficient information regarding the advantages, disadvantages and risks; and engaging in unfettered discussions from multilateral viewpoints to identify the gains and losses expected from the decided action. This applies to all parties involved in the decision, from the Board of Directors to the relevant departments.
- (b) Pursue the improvement of operational efficiency and business innovation for the purpose of enriching the lives of our customers and strive for continuous growth by maximizing Group synergies.
- (c) Develop employees who think and act autonomously and maximize their abilities by treating them fairly and providing them with appropriate opportunities to demonstrate their skills as well as by conducting fair performance evaluations.
- (d) Strive for social contribution through business activities and sustainable business management.

Our business strategies and medium-term management plan are established based on the above stated Basic Policies, and we implement appropriate business management for Group companies to achieve them. For overseas subsidiaries that hold important positions in terms of our growth strategy, we will build an effective governance system reflecting specific features of each country such as the economic environment, government, and laws and regulations.

We will strive to ensure that the above-stated Principles and Policies are widely enforced and complied with across all business activities of AFS Group companies, including overseas subsidiaries, and fulfill our social responsibility.

We believe that the essence of corporate governance comprises of respecting the rights of our shareholders, securing fairness and transparency of management, and increasing the vigor of management, and will endeavor to realize effective and best corporate governance with on-going reviews.

Reasons for Non-compliance with the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code

We comply with all principles of the Corporate Governance Code.

Disclosure Based on each Principle of the Corporate Governance Code

We disclose based on Principles of the Corporate Governance Code.

[Principle 1.4: Cross-Shareholdings (strategic shareholdings)]

(1) Policy on Strategic Shareholdings

Our basic policy is not to engage in strategic shareholdings except where it is considered to have significance based on comprehensive consideration of business and economic rationale such as maintenance of business partnership as a financial institution originating from retail business, and status of individual business transactions.

(2) Standard for Exercise of Voting Rights Concerning Strategic Shareholdings

When exercising voting rights for strategic shareholdings, we will carefully determine how to vote on each agenda by considering perspectives such as enhancement of the corporate value of the issuing company over the medium to long term and improving shareholder returns, and the issuing company's status of business.

[Principle 1.7: Related party transactions]

We have established the following framework to ensure that transactions with our directors or major shareholders do not harm the interests of the company or the common interests of our shareholders:

- With respect to transactions with the parent company Aeon Co., Ltd., and Aeon Group companies, we established and operate the “Detailed Rules on Management of AFS Group Transactions” to enforce the arms-length rules for transactions with related parties. In addition, significant transactions with the parent company, etc., and AFS Group (the Company and its subsidiaries) must be thoroughly deliberated in advance by the Transaction Review Committee comprising of all independent outside directors, and approval of the Board of Directors based on the response from the Committee.
- We expressly require an approval by the Board of Directors for competing transactions and conflicting interest transactions between AFS and our directors pursuant to the Companies Act, in principle. Furthermore, the strict procedure prohibits the director engaging in such transactions from taking part in the resolution as a special interested party.
- Transactions with directors, corporate auditors and major shareholders, etc., are confirmed periodically.

[Supplementary Principle 2.4.1: Ensuring diversity in the promotion to core human resources, etc.]

(1) Policies for ensuring diversity, policies for human resource development and internal environment development, and the status of implementation

We respect each employee's personality and promote creation of a structure where diverse human resources can participate to realize provision of services and products from the customers' perspective. Therefore, we accept diverse human resources regardless of gender, age, or nationality, etc., and actively provide opportunities to participate; and strive to create a corporate culture and workplace that respects diversity of views and opinions and encourages vigorous discussions.

We engage in business in eleven countries including Japan and recognize that we should further promote diversity in Japan. For overseas, dispatch of human resources from Japan is limited, and we already have diversity in core human resources mainly comprising of local personnel. Going forward, we will promote global resource exchange.

(2) Goal for ratio of female managers

As AFS Group has many female customers, we consider that increasing the ratio of women in decision-making positions will enable us to implement strategy formation and product and service development which reflect more diverse perspectives, and responding to diversified customer needs will lead to further improvement of the corporate value. As part of promoting women's participation, AFS Group has set a numerical target for increasing the ratio of women who will assume managerial positions including assistant managers in the future, and aims to achieve the goal of 40.0% female managers in the domestic and overseas of AFS group by FY2030.

We strive to support career development through training for female managers, etc. held at the end of FY2024, expand flexible working styles, and improve the working environment to promote their active engagement.

(3) Goal for ratio of foreign nationals

Ratio of foreign nationals in Japan and ratio of dispatch from Japan to overseas is few percent for both. We have consistently endeavored to develop local resources and respected local management. To promote global cross-border resource exchange, we will continue to provide education programs for excellent employees from various countries (e.g., AFS Management Course, AFS Global Course) and implement appointment of management regardless of nationality.

(4) Goal for ratio of midcareer hires

We have not adhered strictly to regular recruitment practices and have instead hired employees with diverse backgrounds. As a result, we believe that there are various perspectives and values within the company.

[Principle 2.6: Roles of corporate pension funds as asset owners]

We do not have fund-type or contract-type defined benefit corporate pension plan as assumed under the Corporate Governance Code. In addition, Aeon Corporate Pension Fund is operated in order to secure over the long term the total returns considered necessary, within an acceptable range of risk, for the purpose of reliably paying pension benefits and making lump-sum payments to beneficiaries into the future. In light of the pension fund's financial status, the policy asset mix is determined and periodically reviewed after listening to the opinions of outside experts. The fund has an Asset Management Committee, which selects investment products and monitors fund performance quarterly, and decisions are made by the Board of Representatives so as to maximize the interests of beneficiaries and appropriately manage conflicts of interest. We have a representative in the Board of Representatives. Also, the Asset Management Committee includes the Chief Financial Officer and external experts.

[Principle 3.1 Full disclosure]

(1) We disclose Our Purpose, Basic Policies, and Medium-Term Strategy on our corporate website, etc.

- Our Purpose: <https://www.aeonfinancial.co.jp/en/purpose/>
- Medium-Term Strategy: <https://www.aeonfinancial.co.jp/en/ir/strategy/medium/>

(2) Our basic views and basic policy on corporate governance are stated on the “Basic Views” section of this Report.

(3) The Board policies and procedures in determining the remuneration of the senior management and directors are as stated below:

- With respect to the directors' remuneration, the Nomination and Compensation Committee references the Regulations on Remuneration of Directors and engages in discussions and exchanges opinions concerning the payment of remuneration (cash, stocks, etc.) and the appropriateness of the amount to be paid. In accordance with the internal rules, and within the limit of total remuneration for directors and corporate auditors as resolved by the General Meeting of Shareholders, the directors' remuneration is determined by the resolution of the Board of Directors, and the corporate auditors' remuneration are determined by the discussion at the Board of Corporate Auditors, taking into consideration the business performance and management of the Company, and the state of economy, etc.
- Details of the policies are stated in the “Matters Relating to Directors' Remuneration” section of this Report.

(4) Policies and procedures for appointment of senior management and nominations of candidates for Directors/Corporate Auditors by the Board of Directors are as stated below:

- Nomination of candidates for Directors are determined by the Board of Directors based on the discussion and exchange of opinions concerning the candidates for Representative Director and other Directors, skills development policy, development plan, and appropriateness of Director's remuneration by the Nomination and Compensation Committee.
- Directors are removed if they are deemed unfit to execute duties as a director where there are objective and reasonable grounds that they do not meet the following criteria:

1. Understands principles and policies of the Company.
 2. Has extensive knowledge and experience necessary to deliberate agendas at the meetings of the Board of Directors, or has a track record and insight necessary to exercise management supervisory function.
 3. Has outstanding management sense and leadership.
 4. Has a personality and insight appropriate for a director.
 5. Maintains good physical and mental health.
 6. Has been nominated by an existing Director (in case of newly appointed Directors).
 7. Performance evaluation (in case of existing Directors).
- The nomination of candidates for Corporate Auditors is proposed by the President & CEO in accordance with the following criteria. Following discussion and approval by the Board of Corporate Auditors, the proposal to appoint auditors for submission to the General Meeting of Shareholders is determined by the Board of Directors.
 1. Has appropriate experience/ability, and necessary knowledge regarding finance, accounting, and legal matters. One of the nominees for Corporate Auditors must have sufficient knowledge on finance and accounting.
 2. Does not have interests or transaction relationships that may affect management decisions for the Company.
 3. Capable of ensuring soundness and transparency of company management by performing audit from neutral and objective perspective.
 4. Capable of ensuring effectiveness of compliance and governance.
- (5) Reasons for appointment of candidates for Directors and Corporate Auditors are disclosed in the Notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

[Supplementary Principle 3.1.3: Sustainability initiatives]

- We recognize that sustainable development of society is necessary for our business operation. We established the AFS Sustainability Policy*1 in November 2021, and promote sustainability management together with our stakeholders to ensure that our Group business will be positioned as an essential social infrastructure in Japan and overseas.
- We identify the sustainability issues we should address as medium- and long-term key issues (materiality)*2 based on the analysis of the degree of their importance for both our stakeholders and the AFS Group. Some of the materiality for our business management include pursuing happiness through innovative financial services, exerting diversity and the potential of our people, establishing organizational resilience, and addressing climate change. Based on these we have defined key initiatives and performance indicators to be achieved by 2030. We are now entering the implementation phase, where each company and department will take action, and we will work to enhance the effectiveness of our initiatives going forward.
- Above all, with the aim of promoting human resources strategy toward building human resources and organizations that drive growth and facilitating investments in human capital and intellectual properties, we are utilizing the AFS Academy as an in-house human resources education and development organization and have taken actions to cater to our employee needs for diverse ways of working.
- In particular, we recognize that climate change will have significant effect on the lifestyles and health of customers and employees, as well as development of regional economy and community, and we are committed to supporting the recommendations of the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (TCFD) that promotes information disclosure by companies on climate change*3 in December 2021. Together with AEON, we began working toward the realization of a decarbonized society ahead of others, and endeavor to reduce greenhouse gas emissions through our business activities based on the analysis and understanding of risks and opportunities in our businesses.

We have established the Sustainability Committee to promote our sustainability issues, and together with management strategies, and to engage in deliberation, decision-making, and monitoring of Group-based activities. The Committee reports regularly to the Board of Directors.

In addition, the Company annually makes reports on the progress on our initiatives through our Annual Report and on our website to ensure transparency and soundness of management through appropriate information disclosure, referencing the frameworks presented by the International Integrated Reporting Council (IIRC) and Global Reporting Initiative (GRI).

*2 Materiality: <https://www.aeonfinancial.co.jp/en/activity/materiality/>

*3 Climate Change Initiatives: <https://www.aeonfinancial.co.jp/en/activity/environment/climate/>

[Principle 4.1.1: Scope of delegation to management]

We have established the “Rules on Board of Directors” and set forth the matters to be deliberated by the Board of Directors pursuant to laws and regulations as matters to be referred to the Board of Directors. In addition, the “Organizational Regulations” has been established to clarify the scope of execution by senior management, and have built a framework for on-going review corresponding to organizational change, etc.

[Principle 4.9: Independence standards of Outside Directors]

- Our “Independence Standards for Outside Directors” is stated in the “Matters Relating to Independent Directors,” “Other Matters Relating to Independent Directors” section of this Report.

[Supplementary Principle 4.10.1: Roles and authorities of the Nomination and Compensation Committee]

We have established the Nomination and Compensation Committee as an advisory body to the Board of Directors to ensure that the decisions on the nomination and compensation of directors are made according to objective, transparent, and independent procedures.

The Nomination and Compensation Committee comprises of three to seven members nominated from the directors by the Board, with outside directors comprising the majority. The chair of the Committee is elected by mutual election among members who are outside directors.

The Committee deliberates on matters related to appointment and dismissal of directors, corporate auditors, or executive officers; human resource development and other human resources related matters; and matters related to compensation and may submit its opinion to the Board of Directors.

[Supplementary Principle 4.11.1: Approach on the diversity of the Board of Directors]

(1) Structure of the Board of Directors

- The Board shall be composed of appropriate number of directors with emphasis on flexibility and to enable prompt decision-making.
- The Board of Directors shall have individuals who meet the conditions stated below for independent outside directors compose at least one-third of the Board.

(2) Policy and procedures for appointment of directors

- We contribute to the various life stages and life styles of our customers, we appoint individuals that have high integrity (ethics and honesty) and management abilities; who share the basic philosophy of AEON Corporation and “Our Purpose” have abundant practical experience and expertise to play a leadership role in corporate management, global, financial, retail, legal, and accounting matters; and are capable of appropriate business management decision-making and supervision as directors, with consideration to diversity including age and gender.

- For outside directors, we emphasize independence, and appoint individuals who meet the requirements of an “independent directors/auditors” as defined by the Tokyo Stock Exchange, Inc., who have played a leadership role in relevant areas or have experience in policy decision-making level and can be expected to contribute to increase of our corporate value, with consideration to diversity including the balance of expertise, age, and gender.
- The Company has established the Nomination and Compensation Committee with the majority of its members comprising of independent outside directors and chaired by an independent outside director to serve as an advisory body to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall determine the candidates for the Board with the result of deliberation by the Committee respected to the extent possible.

[Principle4.11.2: Information on directors and auditor who have concurrent posts]

- We disclose the significant concurrent posts of Directors and candidates for Directors annually on information disclosure documents such as the Business Report section of the Notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

[Principle4.11.3: Evaluation of the Effectiveness of the Board of Directors]

We perform analysis and evaluation of the effectiveness of the Board of Directors to enhance corporate governance for the purpose of contributing to sustainable growth and improving corporate value.

We have recently analyzed and evaluated the effectiveness of our Board of Directors in FY2024 and have identified the issues we should address to further improve the Board’s effectiveness. The following section shows an overview of our evaluation.

(1) Method of evaluation

In FY2024, we conducted a survey of all directors (11 in total) and all corporate auditors (4 in total) on topics such as board composition and operation status. Major items in the survey are as follows:

Overall assessment of the Board of Directors; board composition; preparations for and operation of the Board; discussions at the Board; self-evaluation of their contribution to committees (the Nomination and Compensation Committee, and the Transaction Review Committee), Board of Corporate Auditors, and the Board of Directors; response to the issues identified in FY2023; gap analysis of the importance of agenda items and the time spent on their discussions (gap analysis using a ten-scale evaluation).

(2) Results

It was concluded that the Board of Directors was generally functioning appropriately as seen in the absence of any major problems regarding the current corporate governance structure or operation. As a response to the identified in FY2023, the Board of Directors had debates on review of the medium-term management plan as well as the growth strategy, and worked to enhance discussions about the company-wide direction. However, these efforts are still insufficient. We will recognize the issues identified in the evaluation and continue to further improve the effectiveness of the Board.

(3) Future key issues

The Board of Directors will aim to engage in the following key issues, including the ongoing issues from the previous fiscal year, to improve and further enhance the Board effectiveness.

- Deepening of discussions on the medium-term management plan and the growth strategy at the Board of Directors:

The Board of Directors will further improve strategic discussions from the medium- and long-term perspectives toward the improvement of the corporate value. To promote growth-oriented management, we will strive to enhance discussions on medium- and long-term strategies by holding discussions at the Board of Directors meetings with the medium-term management plan and each business strategy set as regular agenda items, as well as also utilizing off-site meetings.

- Deepening of discussions on development of next-generation managerial talent, and nomination and compensation for sustainable growth:

With regard to next-generation management, we will regularly monitor and deliberate talent requirements, a development policy/plan, status of development, and candidates for future management at the Board of Directors meetings from the viewpoint of supporting sustained growth.

- Upgrading of the operation of the Board of Directors:

We will endeavor to upgrade the operation of the Board of Directors toward further improvement of the effectiveness of the Board. While sufficient discussions will be conducted on the execution side, the Board's secretariat will build a framework that allows the executive side to make proposals and share information on highly important matters, such as medium- and long-term growth strategies and sophistication of group governance, to the Board of Directors in a timely and appropriate manner. The Board's secretariat will support the exercise of the oversight function of the Board through optimization of agenda setting, preparation of easy-to-understand materials for the Board, holding of preliminary briefings, and appropriate information provision to outside directors.

[Principle4.14.2: Support for Directors]

- We offer education and training programs periodically to Directors and Corporate Auditors, such as corporate governance, management strategy, risk management, internal control, and compliance, for the purpose of equipping Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members with the knowledge necessary for their roles and responsibilities, and to study appropriate updates, etc.
- In addition, we offer opportunities to independent Outside Directors to observe sales offices, etc., as part of the orientation program upon appointment. We continue to provide necessary information such as business related knowledge after the appointment.

[Principle5.1: Policies for dialogue with shareholders]

- We believe it is important to deepen the shareholders' understanding of AFS and our understanding of the shareholders' positions through constructive dialogue with shareholders and investors, and to work towards an appropriate response based on such dialogue.
- We appointed a Director or Executive Officer who is in charge of the Corporate Planning Division or Finance and Accounting Division as the Corporate Disclosure Officer of the AFS Group, and the Investor Relations Department, Corporate Planning Department and Accounting Department is responsible for disclosure operations. In addition, the Disclosure Committee chaired by the Corporate Disclosure Officer has been established and is promoting multifaceted and comprehensive discussions by relevant business units, creating a framework for timely and appropriate information disclosure.
- We report and share information obtained from shareholders and investors through IR activities to the Board of Directors as appropriate.
- Dialogue with shareholders and investors is held based on public information, we ensure its fairness, and strive to enforcing control of insider information.

- As an initiative to promote deeper mutual understanding between the Company and our shareholders/investors, we hold quarterly meetings on financial results and disclose information through our website and Integrated Report. In addition, we actively accept individual interviews from domestic and overseas institutional investors, and we are working to set small meetings between investors and top management, as well as enhance information disclosure for individual investors.

Action to Implement Management That Is Conscious of Cost of Capital and Stock Price

Explanation of Actions

- The Company understands its own capital cost, and has set ROE as an important indicator with regard to the achievement of profitability of capital exceeding capital cost. As the medium-term goal toward sustainable growth, the Company aims to achieve and maintain the level of 10.0% ROE by enhancing earning capacity and increasing capital efficiency.
- To achieve the medium-term target, we are currently pushing forward structural reforms for optimal business portfolio and operate businesses with an awareness of indicators for “asset profitability,” “productivity,” and “capital efficiency.” In addition, while striking a balance between an increase in earning capacity and financial security, we will strive to make investments that contribute to growth areas and productivity enhancement, as well as to provide stable and sustained shareholder returns.
- For an overview of the initiatives, please refer to the full-year financial results presentation materials for the fiscal year ending February 2025 (P.17-27).

4. Policy on Measures to Protect Minority Shareholders in Conducting Transactions with Controlling Shareholder

AEON Co., Ltd. (pure holding company) is our parent company, holding 49.99% of our voting rights (including indirect ownership by AEON Group companies as of February 28, 2025).

We have established the following framework to protect minority shareholders, ensuring that transactions with our officers or major shareholders do not harm the interests of the Company or the common interests of our shareholders:

- With respect to transactions with the parent company AEON Co., Ltd., and AEON Group companies, we established and operate the “Detailed Rules on Management of AFS Group Transactions” to enforce the arms-length rule for transactions with related parties. In addition, significant transactions with the parent company, etc., and AFS Group (the Company and its subsidiaries) will be deliberated in advance by the Transaction Review Committee comprising of all Independent Outside Directors, and approval by the Board of Directors will be required based on the response of the Committee.
- We expressly require an approval by the Board of Directors for competing transactions and conflicting interest transactions between AFS and our directors pursuant to the Companies Act, in principle. Furthermore, the strict procedure prohibits the director engaging in such transactions to take part in the resolution as a special interested party.
- Transactions with directors, corporate auditors and major shareholders, etc., are confirmed periodically. The Board of Directors comprises a total of eleven Directors, including four independent Outside Directors who constitute above one-third of all the Directors at present.

We will continue to maintain our framework for protection of minority shareholders and aim to further improve the framework.

5. Other Special Circumstances which May have a Material Impact on Corporate Governance

We belong to a corporate group consisting of more than 300 companies led by AEON Co., Ltd. (pure holding company). AEON Group organically combines retail business including the general merchandise store AEON, supermarkets, drugstores, and specialty stores; financial services business; shopping center development business; and service business, creating synergies with ever-lasting innovative spirit. We conduct AEON Group’s financial business as the operating holding company of domestic and overseas subsidiaries that operate credit card purchase contracts centering on credit card business, loan business, banking business, etc. Whereas AEON is responsible for preparation of overall strategies, optimal allocation of management resources, enforcement and control of the Management Philosophy and Basic Principles, and provision of shared services and functions for the AEON Group, the subsidiaries including AFS aim to further improve customer satisfaction by enhancing our expertise and engaging in business operation that is closely aligned with local communities.

We will cooperate with the AEON Group in Japan and overseas to resolve environmental and social issues, while also promoting unique financial inclusion initiatives utilizing our financial framework. We apply our own management decision making to routine business operations and consult with or report to AEON on significant issues on business management. We endeavor to achieve sustainable growth and development and improve our business performance in close cooperation with AEON and AEON Group companies while maintaining sufficient respect for mutual autonomy. At present, AEON Group including AEON holds 49.99% (as of February 28, 2025) of our voting rights and AEON has the rights of a major shareholder of AFS. To deepen cooperation with the AEON Group and incorporate its broad management perspective, two Executive Officers of AEON have been appointed as a Director of AFS. However, considering that the four independent Outside Directors comprise one third of the eleven Directors at present, we believe it does not hamper our independent management decision making. In addition, significant transactions with the parent company, etc., and AFS Group (the Company and its subsidiaries) will be deliberated in advance by the Transaction Review Committee comprising only of Independent Outside Directors, and approval by the Board of Directors will be required based on the response of the Committee.

We have overseas listed subsidiaries AEON Credit Service (Asia) Co. Ltd. (Hong Kong), AEON THANA SINSAP(THAILAND)PCL. (Thailand), and AEON CREDIT SERVICE (M) BERHAD (Malaysia), and we will aim to maximize the corporate value of AFS Group as a whole and to achieve sustainable growth and development, while respecting their autonomy and independence.

AFS Group endeavors to establish compliance and risk management framework and enhance corporate governance and aim to become a corporate group that provides safer, more comfortable, convenient and beneficial financial products and services from the customers' perspective. In addition, as a general financial services group originating from the retail industry, we will optimize and effectively use management resources including the financial know-how, system infrastructure and sales network developed in Japan and overseas, and further strengthen our management platform.

AEON's "Policy on Governance of Listed Subsidiaries" is as stated below:

AEON has, under the Basic Principles of pursuing peace, respecting humanity, and contributing to local communities, always with the customer's point of view at its core, implemented since our foundation a decentralized Group management with emphasis on autonomy and independence of management of the Group companies, based on the belief that this will improve the corporate value of the whole Group.

As the parent company, AEON implements various management measures to enhance synergies across the Group, as seen by quickly becoming a Company with a Nominating Committee, etc., in 2003 to improve the transparency of Group governance and the speed of business operation; and becoming a pure holding company in 2008 to enhance Group-based management that does not focus excessively on specific businesses.

Group companies are listed where autonomous management aligned with the attributes of the region and the business operation is deemed to promote sustainable growth; and capital market disciplines are expected to improve the quality of management. From the perspective of protecting minority shareholders of listed subsidiaries, we request appointment of independent Outside Directors and establishment of Advisory Committee by independent officers.

As stated above, we believe that maximizing cooperation and synergies with AEON Group companies will lead to benefits for the minority shareholders.

Incentives

Implementation Status of Measures related to Incentives Granted to Directors

Introduction of Performance-linked Remuneration Scheme / Introduction of Stock Options Scheme

Supplementary Explanation for Applicable Items

AFS abolished the Officer's Retirement Benefit System in May 2004, limiting the Director's annual remuneration to within 300,000,000 yen, and newly introducing a share-compensation-type stock option of up to 100,000,000 yen and 20,000 shares per annum. The purpose was to share the stock price benefits and risks with shareholders, and to enhance motivation towards improving business performance and increasing corporate value. The program has been approved at the 26th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders. At the 34th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held in June 2015, the Director's annual remuneration was revised to within 550,000,000 yen. Of which, cash remuneration shall be within 400,000,000 yen per annum (of which, remuneration for Outside Directors shall be within 50,000,000 yen per annum) and the fair value of the share-compensation-type stock option shall be up to 150,000,000 yen per annum.

The person with authority to determine the amount and calculation method for AFS Directors' remuneration for 2024 was the President & CEO Shunsuke Shirakawa, and the scope of his authority and discretion is as stated in the part related to the individual remuneration (cash) for each Director, based on the resolution of the Board of Directors held on April 19, 2024. Performance-linked compensation has been determined based on the performance of AFS and individual performance of each Director, within the scope determined by the budget achievement ratio. Furthermore, determining these remunerations requires prior advice from the Nomination and Compensation Committee.

Achievement ratio for operating revenue and ordinary profit is the main indicator related to performance-linked compensation, and the actual payment amount is determined reflecting extraordinary profit, changes in business environment during the fiscal year, and revision of the terms of internal transactions.

Persons Eligible for Stock Options

Inside Directors

Supplementary Explanation for Applicable Items

To secure independence, remuneration for Outside Directors and Corporate Auditors do not include performance-linked compensation and share-compensation-type stock options and is limited to fixed monthly compensation.

Total annual Corporate Auditors' remuneration: 33,000,000 yen

Total: 227,000,000 yen

of which, outside Officers' remuneration: 88,000,000 yen

(Notes)

1. Above stated remuneration includes 16,000,000 yen of expenses for payment of bonuses to five Directors, and 5,000,000 yen of expenses for the stock acquisition rights (stock compensation-type stock options) granted to six Directors.
2. As of the end of the fiscal year, there were eleven Directors and four Corporate Auditors. Of which, two Director and one Corporate Auditor are serving without compensation.

Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods

Established

Disclosure of Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods

- Director's remuneration is paid to promote strong motivation to execute management strategies and is linked with performance, with consideration to fairness and transparency.
- Director's remuneration comprises of base remuneration, performance-based remuneration, and share-compensation-type stock options. Base remuneration is paid on a monthly basis to the Directors. Performance-based remuneration is paid to the Directors after the close of the fiscal year based on the annual performance and is the sum of corporate performance-based remuneration and personal performance-based remuneration. Corporate performance-based remuneration is calculated by applying the consolidated financial performance-based conversion factor to the base amount. Personal performance-based remuneration is calculated by applying the personal performance evaluation-based conversion factor to the base amount. Share-compensation-type stock options are granted to the Directors in the form of subscription rights after the close of the fiscal year based on annual performance.

Support System for Outside Directors (and/or Outside Audit and Supervisory Board Members)

- Support to Outside Directors is provided through the Corporate Planning Department, serving as the secretariat for the Board of Directors. It provides necessary support to enable the Outside Directors and External Corporate Auditors to make appropriate decisions, including advanced distribution of materials and explanation of agenda ahead of the Board of Directors meetings.
- Two dedicated staff members for assisting the Corporate Auditors' duties have been appointed.
