

Positioning within the AEON Group

AEON Group Snapshot

Here we present key facts and figures for AEON Co., Ltd., one of Japan's leading retail enterprises and the parent company of AEON Financial Service.

Japan Retail Industry No. 1* AEON had the highest operating revenue among retailers in Japan in fiscal 2016, surpassing the ¥8 trillion mark.	Founded 259 years ago Okadaaya, one of AEON's predecessors, began business in Yokkaichi, Mie Prefecture in 1758.	Business Locations 21,113 stores/locations* AEON Group stores in Japan and around the world support safe and secure customer lifestyles.
Cumulative Visitors to AEON Malls in Japan 1.2 billion/year* AEON began developing shopping centers in 1969, the first company in Japan to do so, and today operates 303 such facilities.	Group Employees 520,000* AEON has diverse employees at about 300 group companies in Japan and internationally, and provides workplaces where each employee can excel.	Countries/Regions Served in Asia 13 AEON branched out first to Malaysia in 1984, before expanding to Thailand, Hong Kong, and other countries/regions.

*As of February 28, 2017

